Matthew A. Williams
Registration No. 57, 141

Dear Sir,

On August 29, 2006, Applicant, through the undersigned counsel, participated in a telephonic interview with Examiner Edell. The purpose of this interview was to discuss the final rejection that was mailed on August 7, 2006.

During this interview, no exhibits were shown and no demonstrations were conducted.

Claim 1 was the only claim discussed during the interview, and it was discussed in light of Crisp (U.S. Patent No. 4,900,087). Applicant and Examiner reached agreement that Crisp does not teach a restraint system encapsulated by the first and second child seat portions when the second child seat portion is in its closed position. Applicant agreed to an Examiner's amendment to add this limitation, and Examiner indicated that the application was now in condition for allowance.

Applicant further states that Examiner Edell's Interview Summary is attached hereto and incorporated by reference into Applicant's Summary.

Respectfully submitted,

---
